

Incoming Students Summer Reading Assignment Rubric:
The Double-Entry Journal

	Exceeds Standards (4)	Meets Standards (3)	Approaching Standards (2)	Insufficient Evidence (1-0)
Quotations	At least 15 very significant quotes have been chosen that completely show the coming of age theme in Whirligig	At least 15 significant quotes have been chosen that show the coming of age theme in Whirligig	Less than 15 quotes have been chosen that only sometimes show the coming of age theme in Whirligig	Less than 10 quotes have been chosen that rarely or never show the coming of age theme in Whirligig
Responses	Indicates superior comprehension through detailed & thoughtful analysis of quotes as they relate to the coming of age theme	Indicates good comprehension through logical analysis of quotes as they relate to the coming of age theme	Indicates some comprehension & analysis of quotes as they relate to the coming of age theme	Does not indicate comprehension because there is little or no analysis OR does not show how relates to the coming of age theme
Clarity &amp; Grammar	Writing is clear, correct, and with no significant grammatical errors	Writing is clear & contains few significant grammatical errors	Writing is mostly clear but contains some significant grammatical errors	Writing is not clear and contains significant grammatical errors
Mechanics &amp; Punctuation	Writing contains no significant errors in spelling, punctuation, & capitalization	Writing contains few significant errors in spelling, punctuation, & capitalization	Writing contains some significant errors in spelling, punctuation, & capitalization	Writing contains many significant errors in spelling, punctuation, & capitalization
*Citations	Quotes are always cited properly in MLA format	Quotes are mostly cited properly in MLA format	Quotes are sometimes cited properly in MLA format	Quotes are rarely or never cited properly in MLA format
Neatness &amp; Organization	Writing is completely legible and effectively organized in the Bluebook	Writing is legible and organized in the Bluebook	Writing is mostly legible and somewhat organized in the Bluebook	Writing is not legible and/or not organized in the Bluebook

_____ / 24 = _____ / 100%

*Please refer to Double-Entry Journal Notes handout for proper MLA format